THE BLUE
 STOOPS
*"The chat was loud, the music was swing, the vibe was retro, the food was good, the beer and wine were terrific, the bill was modest and the whole thing was, in short, like London pubs never really were,
 despite what anyone says, until about last Tuesday."*
 — Giles Coren

THE BLUE
 STOOPS
"The original Blue Stoops pub was said to be 'so old no one knew of its beginning.' Now, centuries later, this historic boozer is back, with an electric blue facade that won't be forgotten in a hurry."

To have Bottled Ale in good condition the Bottle should be kept standing up, retained in that position whilst the cork is drawn, and the contents poured carefully into a jug, keeping back the sediment.
